

Homebuyer Program Orientations

Creating a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

If you . . .

...have a steady and verifiable source of income,

...are credit worthy and have low debt,

...meet the income guidelines,

...have a valid need for improved housing,

...are willing to partner with us,

...live or work in Orange County

. . . then you are invited to attend one of our 2020 orientations!

Habitat for Humanity of Orange County is looking for families for affordable homeownership opportunities!

Homebuyer Program Qualifications

Habitat for Humanity®
of Orange County

If your family meets Habitat OC's qualifications, please come to a program orientation.

- 1 Your family has a need for improved housing and does not have the ability to acquire long-term permanent housing. Your family pays more than 30% of income for rent.
- 2 Your family must have a steady source of verifiable income and can demonstrate financial responsibility.
- 3 Annual gross income requirements depend on your household size. Income includes salary, wages, overtime, bonuses, alimony, child support, disability, social security, etc.
- 4 Your family must demonstrate responsible use of credit. Habitat OC will check credit history through a credit report. All collection accounts and past dues must be paid in full.
- 5 Bankruptcy: To be eligible, you must wait 7 years from date of discharge. Foreclosure: To be eligible, you must wait 7 years from date of completion.
- 6 Your debt-to-income ratio must not be more than 10%.
- 7 Your family must be able to pay a 1-5% down payment and closing costs of approximately $10,000 - $25,000.
- 8 You must have a minimum savings of $3,000 in a bank account at the time of application.
- 9 Each adult applicant must contribute 250 hours of labor ("sweat equity") to Habitat OC through construction work for new construction and 100 hours for ReSale Homes; if needed, special accommodations are made.
- 10 Your family must live or work in Orange County and every member of the household must be a citizen or legal resident of the United States.

Creating a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

We are pledged to the letter and spirit of US policy for the achievement of equal housing opportunity throughout the nation. We encourage and support an affirmative advertising and marketing program in which there are no barriers to obtaining housing because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial, or national origin.
